        Hi everyone,
        I've developed an application with Visual Basic.Net 2010 which is supposed to create a SQL Server database as the application is being started for the first time.Now,The problem is I get an error message saying that no instance of SQL Server was found on the machine and the reason seems to be that the SQL Server Browser is not running.So,My question is how I can put in a piece of code(C# or VB) which will take care of getting SQL Server Browser running?
        I'd appreciate any answer in advance
